

Languages, Literacy and Communication

Narrative verse
Playscripts
Persuasive texts
Evaluating evidence

Topic based:

Read a range of stories about identity and belonging.
Create a narrative verse about your family.
Write persuasive letters to decision makers
Research topics and write fact files, do projects, make presentations
Explore languages we speak in our families.

Welsh:

Ask questions and express opinions, likes and dislikes. Include third person and past tense.
Welsh week, Eisteddfod

Maths and Numeracy

Counting in 10s from any number
Complements of £1 £10
Rounding and estimation
Ordering numbers within 100, difference, money values
Introduce tenths and decimal notation.
Find quarters and divide by 4. Halves as tenths, quarters as .25
Expanded vertical addition and subtraction
Halving & doubling diamonds recaps with tenths.
Grid method of multiplication.
Symmetry, compass points, temperature, angle and position

Science and Technology

The structure of the Earth.
The Rock cycle.
Investigating soil types.
Soil permeability experiment.
Looking for life in the soil.
Using keys.
The classification of plants and animals.

Expressive Arts

Dance Welsh Dancing and Drama Queens- Dance Extravaganza project
Art – explore artwork by Welsh artists and replicate their style for local landmarks or areas of natural beauty.
Music – Listen to and share favourite music genres
Listen to music to countries we are connected too.

My World

Homework

Make a diary of your weekend, where did you visit what did you do?
Speak to your family can you list all the places your family live in Monmouth, Wales, and the wider world.
Can you find flags for countries you have visited or where your family may have come from.
Write directions from your house to your favourite place.
Draw a picture of your family.
Take photographs of your favourite things- why are they important to you.
Write a persuasive letter to Mrs Smith about something that is important to you.

Health and Wellbeing

PE: Gymnastics balance and shape, Creating our own routines.
Outdoors: Ball skills catching, throwing, kicking.
Swimming sessions at the leisure centre.

Jigsaw:

Dreams and Goals
Healthy Me

Humanities

Explore our own identity, similarities and differences with others.
Belonging: What is our community, what clubs do we attend. How many communities are we part of.
Where we live- where are our special places, important places for the wider community.
Where do we feel at home.
Exploring our family history- where are we from.
World and Welsh geography. Read and draw maps.
Discover facts about the range of religions including places of worship, religious sites and festivals.

