

Languages, Literacy and Communication

Non-Chronological Reports researching, planning and writing reports
Discussion Text writing a balanced argument.
Dilemma Stories using story maps to plan and create a dilemma story.
Myths & Legends understanding the origins of myths and creating our own versions.

Welsh : Weather, Animals, Plants. What can be heard, seen, and smelt.

Spanish: Learn and perform the Three Little Pigs in Spanish.

Mandarin: Taster sessions

Humanities

- Identifying climates, oceans, continents
- Rainforest layers, animals, and plants
- Exploring physical features across continents e.g. mountains, rainforests, deserts
- Exploring extreme weather and other phenomena e.g. volcanoes, earthquakes
- Researching nature and climate-based charities e.g. National Trust
- RVE project stories from the Old Testament.

Maths and Numeracy

Presentation and interpretation of data - lists, bar charts, pictograms and tables
Understanding money and comparing costs
Convert and recognise the appropriateness of units in different contexts
Measure and record temperatures
Classify triangles
Translate and rotate shapes in a quadrant
Explore sequences that involve both addition and subtraction
Use < and > to describe whether a number is more or less than Solve one step equations
Understand mean, median, mode and range

Science and Technology

Types of habitats

- Parts of flowers
- Seed dispersal
- Podcasts, videos, adverts related to climate change.
- Use Digimaps online map resource.

Homework

- Create a bar chart, tally, pie chart of the most popular sports in your family.
- Create a new game based around cricket, tennis and rounders. Design a set of rules, playing area and kits.
- Write a non-chronological report about something that interests you. Think about all the key features.
- Build a Wild West scene using any medium you choose.
- Investigate a river from around the world. What facts can find? Present in your own way.

Year 4/5 Summer Term GOING WILD!

Expressive Arts

- Extreme weather art using chalk
- Lino printing – Animal prints
- Animal and plant clay tiles
- Dancing related to other cultures e.g. African

Health and Wellbeing

Athletics, running, jumping & throwing
Tennis/Cricket/Rounders
Dodgeball/Benchball
Sports Day

Jigsaw – Relationships.
Changing Me

